Hennen joins McKee Foods Corporation as corporate counsel

COLLEGEDALE, Tenn. — July 1, 2019 — McKee Foods is pleased to announce that Chris Hennen has accepted the position of corporate counsel in the Law Department, effective Friday, June 28, 2019. Chris has practiced law with the Chattanooga law firm of Chambliss, Bahner & Stophel P.C., since 2010, working in the firm's business section on a wide range of corporate legal matters. During his tenure with Chambliss, Chris has worked closely with many departments at McKee Foods. He will continue to work with those various departments while assuming additional responsibilities as part of the Law Department team.

Chris graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree from Boston College and then received his law degree from Emory University School of Law.

About McKee Foods

McKee Foods, a family bakery with annual sales of about $1.4 billion, is a privately-held company based in Collegedale, Tenn. The McKee Foods story began during the height of the Great Depression when founder O.D. McKee began selling 5-cent snack cakes from the back of his car. Soon after, he and his wife, Ruth, bought a small bakery on Main Street in Chattanooga, Tenn., using the family car as collateral. Today, the company employs more than 6,000 people in Collegedale, Tenn.; Gentry, Ark.; Stuarts Draft, Va.; and Kingman, Ariz. It creates and produces Little Debbie® baked goods, Drake's® cakes, Sunbelt Bakery® snacks and cereals, Heartland® brands and Fieldstone® Bakery food products.
